

“ACBI - IFCC Task Force Young Scientist” Award-2017

About the IFCC-TFYS

International Federation of Clinical Chemistry & Laboratory Medicine Task Force Young Scientists (IFCC-TF YS) is devoted to prepare young scientists with ongoing changes in laboratory medicine and healthcare practices. The specific objectives were identified as Networking, Training, Participation & Multidisciplinary exchanges of different fields & different ideas. Thus, IFCC-TF YS is devoted to organise CME, Workshops, and Trainings in Congresses of IFCC & its Member Societies. This is to learn perspectives & principles of Laboratory Management & Leadership. In India with collaborative efforts of ACBI & IFCC, the IFCC-TFYS is organizing educational sessions/ workshops/symposium every year in National Conference ACBICON.
